Answer

MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT
(DR. MAHENDRA NATH PANDEY)

(a) to (d): University of Delhi is a statutory autonomous organization established under University of Delhi Act, 1922 and all administrative and academic decisions are taken by the University with the approval of its statutory bodies, such as Executive Council, Academic Council, Court and the University. The University has reported that the Undergraduate admissions to different colleges of the University for the academic session 2016-17 is underway and up to the closure of the 5th cut off list 47,915 admissions have been completed from different Boards and States. The admission is done on the basis of merit and there is no discrimination. Students who have passed out from Delhi schools can seek admission in a Central University or in State Universities in Delhi.
